6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Organizational Behavior

Experience an original improv performance created by Lisa Rowland that puts complex, multidimensional women at the center of the story. Inspired by the Bechdel Test—which asks whether two women talk to each other about something other than a man—the show challenges traditional narrative norms and highlights gender representation in storytelling. Exclusive to OB attendees, the performance will be followed by a Q&A with the cast.
